Writing, formal writing

You and some friends recently visited an open-air market where a wide range of street food was on sale. You have decided to write a review of the market for your school magazine.

In your review, give your views on the market and the food that is served there.

Here are some comments from friends who went with you:

There's something special about eating outside in a crowded market.

It's the sort of place where you can try things you've never eaten before.

Now write a review of the street market.

The comments above may give you some ideas, and you should also use some ideas of your own.

Write about 120 to 160 words.

You will receive up to 6 marks for the content of your review, and up to 9 marks for the language used.

there is

Recently there's an open air market nearby with wide range of street food on sale. My friend and I visited ^{the market to sample some food} it was an excellent experience ^{overall}.

The market has a lively atmosphere, with the 'smell' of 'fresh' vegetables and food in the air. There were extensive food options, like 'burgers, mushroom skew, from local to international foods. It was splendid! The vendors were also friendly and eager to recommend their best dishes.

In conclusion, this market is a great place to explore new flavors and experience outside stalls.
